About this property

This exclusive single-storey villa represents the essence of modern comfort and contemporary design. Located in one of the most charming areas of the Alicante area, it offers a perfect balance between privacy, functionality and connection with the landscape. With an architecture of clean lines, large windows and a design oriented towards natural light, this home has been conceived for those who value open spaces, harmony with nature and comfort without sacrificing style. With more than 150 m² built on a generous private plot of more than 300 m², this property is ideal both as a permanent...
